

Why Academic Freedom Matters: A response to current challenges

The issues of freedom of speech on campuses and academic freedom have become major talking points. Student politics, once something people left behind upon graduation, is now the daily fare...

READ MORE

- Competitiveness Before Carbon
- Mitigating the impact of tariffs on UK-EU trade
- The Real Sterling Crisis
- Why Academic Freedom Matters
- Restoring a Nation of Home Owners

“Civitas provides contributions to topical education debates. Where other commentators cite statistics derived from the National Pupil Database there is value in being able to verify the facts. An example is <http://blogs.ft.com/ftdata/2012/06/21/social-mobility-and-o-levels/>

“In addition, Civitas publishes reports of its own into aspects of social and educational policy. Particular focus will be on absence and exclusion from school and the effect on pupils' own results and those of others in the school.”

Tier ?: pupil level, identifying and highly sensitive
From: Granted data on 08/08/2012
Until:
Where: all Key Stage 4 (KS4)

Download original requests : June 2012 .pdf

Related websites: <http://civitas.org.uk/>

Older requests have few details recorded on the releases.